FEATURES

A planar form prevalent in mid-century design is captured in the Rapson Thirty-Nine Guest chair. The form is elegantly portrayed in both the style of the leg and the fully upholstered shell. It is further defined by stitch lines that elegantly trace the shape of the chair.

The Thirty-Nine Guest chair is offered in natural walnut or ash veneer.

The design of the shell offers a high level of user comfort. Additionally, it allows for a wide variety of textiles to be approved for use.
