

objet d'art

Jess Sorel pauses to reflect on his craft.

“What makes a design endearing is that it needs to be relevant but beautiful—not just a piece of equipment!” Check and mate: His Palomino collection for Leland nails both mandates. The modular residential-styled seating, upholstered in 100 percent wool felt, has a walnut tripod base and an attached side table in the same material. Conceived with hospitality, health care, and office environs in mind, the units can be clustered to delineate hangout spots in open-plan areas. Specify screens for extra privacy and/or a tablet for added functionality. space 337
